

Arapahoe County 4-H Foundation 2012 Important Volunteer of the Year (IVY) Winner

Shelly Moorman

Shelly Moorman has been a 4-H leader in Arapahoe County eight years and has served as Organizational Leader of Smoky Hill 4-H Club the past four years.

Shelly has helped coordinate the County Consumer Choices Contest, Junior Division for the past six years. She has conducted numerous training sessions for 4-H members on how to compete in the Consumer Choices Contest. She coached the County Senior Consumer Choices team one year and the team won second place in the state competition.

She has also served the past six years as the volunteer coordinator for the Annual 4-H Fashion Revue at the Arapahoe County Fair and has served on the County 4-H Advisory board for four years.

Shelly also has served as chair of the Hamilton Middle School PTA, and the George Washington High School College Prep Committee. She volunteers with the Sunday Lunch program at her church. This program makes and delivers sandwiches for the needy in downtown Denver.

The Smoky Hill 4-H Club is a large club, but Shelly goes out of her way to welcome and involve new members in the club. Members and leaders who work with her admire her leadership skills, her professionalism, and her diplomacy, tact, discretion when dealing with difficult situations and people. They all say she is an example to be followed.

Congratulation Shelly!
