Arapahoe County Fair Craft Brew Fest back for third year with new brewers

Colorado craft breweries bringing their best brews for tasting competition

LITTLETON, CO – Bigger and better than ever, the Arapahoe County Fair Craft Brew Fest is back for a third year.

On July 29, 20 Colorado craft brewers will bring their best brews to the Arapahoe County Fair to compete for fairgoers favorite beer of the night. Fairgoers will be able to vote on the tastiest brews and the winning breweries will receive a plaque from the Arapahoe County Board of County Commissioners as well as top bragging rights.

Lone Tree Brewing Company, 38 State Brewing, Breckenridge Brewery, Castle Rock Beer Company, Fermaentra Brewery, Weldwerks Brewing, IronWorks Brewery and Pub, Boggy Draw Brewing, Ursula Brewing, Halfpenny Brewing Company, Chain Reaction Brewing Company and Mockery Brewing will join brewers coming back from last year's Craft Brew Fest. Returning winners from 2015 include Mu Brewery, Living the Dream Brewing Company and Dry Dock Brewing Company.

Other returning breweries include The Brew on Broadway, Blue Spruce Brewing, Elk Mountain Brewing, Hall Brewing Company and Two22 Brew. More than 38 different brews will be featured and fairgoers will have the opportunity to enjoy unlimited tastings of unique and award-winning libations.

The 2016 Craft Brew Fest will be held indoors in the new Exhibition Hall 4 – 9 p.m., July 29 and tickets are $15. Tickets are sold separately from general Fair admission tickets and will include a tasting cup for sampling, food and live music. There also will be fireworks Friday night at the Fair.

All fairgoers are welcome to visit the Exhibition Hall where the Craft Brew Fest will be held but you must be 21 or older to participate in the tasting. To buy tickets to the Fair and Craft Brew Fest online and to learn about other activities and events happening at this year's fair, visit www.arapahoecountyfair.com.

The Arapahoe County Fairgrounds is located at 25690 E. Quincy Ave., Aurora 80016.
