

2019 4-H Foundation Scholarship Winners

Anna Wikowsky (left) and Kassidy Euritt (right)

Anna Wikowsky received the $2500 Arabell Burnett Scholarship this year. Anna will graduate from Grandview High School with a GPA of 4.404. She is a 9 year 4-H member of the Lucky Clovers 4-H Club. Anna's biggest 4-H project has been raising rabbits. Her other projects have included Leathercraft, Modelcraft, Cake Decorating, Poultry, Outdoor Adventure, Clothing Construction, Woodworking, Foods and Nutrition, Scrapbooking, Sketchbook Crossroads, Small Engines and the Cat project.

The many skills she learned in 4-H she uses in her everyday life such as keeping records, balancing schedules, tracking money, developing good study habits, taking notes, planning and attending meetings and teaching others.

Anna was a member of the Arapahoe County Livestock Quiz bowl team that took Reserve Grand Champion in 2017. The team went onto the National 4-H Quiz Bowl in Nebraska where they took 5th Overall. Anna herself place 5th at this competition.

Anna also is a member of the school French Club, French Honor Society, the Horticultural Society, robotics, enjoys horseback riding and traveling. She plays the French horn in band. This past summer she went to Biarritz, France on a Language Immersion and Culture Study program.

Anna will be attending CSU majoring in Biological and Chemical Engineering with a minor in music and French. Her career goal is to obtain an undergraduate degree and then go onto Veterinary School. She is also passionate about a possible engineering career.

Her 4-H highlight was winning the Grand Champion Senior Poultry Showmanship competition at the Arapahoe County Fair this past year. She worked all summer with her show bird to achieve this honor.

Congratulations Anna!

Kassidy Euritt is receiving the Melody Kollath Memorial scholarship of $1,500.00. Kassidy is also graduating from Grandview High School this spring and will attend Aurora Community College and Bel Rae to become a Veterinary technician. She is a 7 year member of the Elk Creek 4-H Club. Her major project has also been raising rabbits and she showed the Grand Champion Market rabbit this past year. Her other projects have included Artistic Clothing, Foods and Nutrition, Expressive Arts, Home Design and Décor, Outdoor Adventure, Sports Fishing, Woodworking and Shooting Sports.

(Continued)

She says that 4-H has taught her not only to set goals but how to attain them.

She is a Shooting Sports Junior Leader and is state certified in multiple Shooting Sports disciplines. She works with the younger members in Shooting Sports, helps teach parliamentary procedure to new members at club meetings, sets up community service projects, has organized and administers the online club calendar. She is also a member of the Junior Livestock Committee and Junior Leaders. Kassidy participates in ARBA activities and is working towards becoming a rabbit judge. She also works with ILC youth at school. Kassidy puts her heart and soul into everything she is involved with. She is a natural leader.

She has attend 4-H Youth Fest, CLC, Leadership Development Conference, State 4-H Conference and was a delegate to Citizenship Washington Focus this past summer.

Congratulations Kassidy!

